

The “status submitted” shown on the TEB site is the confirmation that your request has been submitted.

6. To track the status of your request, you will have to return to the TEB page and monitor the status.

7. After the request is submitted, it will be added to a queue of submitted requests. Currently, the certification site does not allow certification officials to retrieve a specific request. System upgrades are being made and it is expected that certification officials will be able to process specific requests by the last week of July 2009. In the meantime, requests are being processed as quickly as possible within current system limitations. After a request is approved, the status of your request will change to “approved” and the date of status will be the date you submitted your request.

8. Once your request is approved, your dependent has to submit a request for a certificate of eligibility to the VA using VA Form 22-1990e. The VA Form 22-1990e is not on the VA's VONAPP website. It is expected to have the VA Form 22-1990e on the VONAPP website by 17 July 2009. Once it is on the VONAPP website, it can be completed and submitted to the VA electronically. The link to the VA VONAPP website is at <http://vabenefits.vba.va.gov/vonapp/main.asp>. A hard copy of the VA Form 22-1990e is available at <http://www.vba.va.gov/pubs/forms/VBA-22-1990e-ARE.pdf>. This form has to be mailed in. In the form, it is recommended additional information be submitted with the form. This is not required. The TEB site will automatically transfer the data to the VA to process a dependent's request for a certificate of eligibility.

9. After the dependent receives the VA certificate of eligibility, it must be presented to the school. The school will have to complete a VA Form 22-1999, which will be sent to the VA. If the school is participating in the Yellow Ribbon Program and your dependent has received Yellow Ribbon Program funds from the school, the school needs to indicate that on the VA Form 22-1999 before sending it to the VA.

10. Tuition funds will be sent directly from the VA to the school. Children using transferred benefits will receive the monthly living stipend and the stipend for books and supplies. Spouses using transferred benefits will receive only the monthly living stipend and the stipend for books and supplies if they use the benefits after you separate from active duty.

Soldiers should consider giving at least 1 month of benefits to each eligible Family member before leaving the Service (this leaves options open - new transferees can be added only while in the military, but benefits can be moved around or removed after separation).

Post-9/11 GI BILL

Transferability Quick Reference

Post-9/11 GI Bill Transferability Policy Quick Reference

To be eligible to transfer Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits, a Soldier must meet three requirements:

1. Be eligible for the Post-9/11 GI Bill.
2. Have at least 6 years of military service when the request to transfer benefits is submitted; all military service counts toward the 6-year requirement except time in the Individual Ready Reserve.
3. Not have an adverse action flag.

If all three requirements are met, a Soldier is eligible to submit a request to transfer benefits.

Soldiers who transfer benefits incur an additional service obligation in accordance with the following rules:

Rule	Years of Service When Request is Submitted	Additional Service Obligation
1	At least 6 years but less than 10 years	Four years after the date the request was submitted.
2	10 or more years	Four years or up to retention control point or mandatory retirement date after the date the request was submitted, whichever is less.

From 1 August 2009 until 1 August 2013, the below temporary rules for additional service obligation apply. Years of service for the temporary rules are always based on length of service as of 1 August 2009 regardless of when the request to transfer is submitted.

Rule	Years of Service as of 1 Aug 09	Additional Service Obligation
3	20 or more years	No additional service obligation.
4	Approved retirement with a date from 1 September 2009 through 1 June 2010	No additional service obligation.
5	19 but less than 20 years	One year of service after the date the request was submitted.
6	18 but less than 19 years	Two years of service after the date the request was submitted.
7	17 but less than 18 years	Three years of service after the date the request was submitted.

Eligible dependents are spouse and dependent children who are enrolled in DEERS and eligible for benefits under DEERS on the date the request to transfer is submitted. Dependents of dual-military couples have to be sponsored by one Soldier but registered under both Soldiers.

Submitting a Request to Transfer Benefits

1. Using common access card or Defense Finance and Accounting Service pin, log on to the DOD Transferability of Education Benefits (TEB) website located at <https://www.dmdc.osd.mil/TEB/>.
2. The Soldier's name and Family members who are eligible for benefits under DEERS will be shown.
3. Soldiers must click all boxes to indicate that they have read and understand each statement on the transfer request page. Soldiers who are eligible for the Montgomery GI Bill-Active Duty, Montgomery GI Bill-Selected Reserve, or the Reserve Educational Assistance Program are required to make an irrevocable decision to convert from one of those education-benefit programs to the Post-9/11 GI Bill. Submission of a request to transfer benefits is considered an irrevocable conversion from one of these three programs to the Post-9/11 GI Bill. For those Soldiers who are not eligible for one of these three programs, all statements on the transfer page regarding conversion from these three programs do not apply. However, those Soldiers must still mark those statements.
4. To transfer benefits to an eligible dependent, click the edit button on his or her name line. (If the dependent name is grayed out or the edit button does not work, it means that dependent is not eligible for DEERS benefits and thus is not eligible to receive transferred benefits.)
  - a. List the number of months of benefits to transfer to that dependent.
- b. Select the start date you want the dependent to be able to use transferred benefits. You can use either the calendar on the page or type in the start date. Format for date is YYYY-MM-DD. If you type in the date, be sure to use the dashes. When selecting the start date, remember that the VA will not pay benefits to a dependent before that date.
- c. Select the end date after which your dependent can no longer use transferred benefits. Select this date carefully. After this date the VA will not pay benefits to a dependent even if the dependent has months of benefits remaining. When selecting this date consider that a spouse can use benefits up to 15 years after you leave active duty and that children can use the benefits up to their 26th birthday.
- d. After you have filled in the number of months to transfer to the dependent and selected the start and end dates, hit the save button. Make sure "revoke" is not checked unless it is your intent to revoke benefits transfer.
- e. After the request is submitted, the TEB site will return to the original page with all your eligible dependents. To transfer benefits to another dependent, repeat the above steps. Remember the total months you can transfer to your dependents can be no more than 36 months or the number of months of Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits to which you are entitled, whichever is less.
5. After you have completed your request to transfer benefits, you will see your name and "status submitted" in the upper left corner of the TEB site. The date of status will be blank. The TEB site does track the date submitted and the certifying official will see it. You will not receive any confirmation number or any electronic message.
